USDA Supports Handicapable Dancers

Have you danced with our Handicapable friends? They are full of fun and energy, and always willing to square up the moment the music starts. The United Square Dancers of America is proud to support Handicapable dancers and programs.

- First, USDA allocates funds toward the registration fee for eligible Handicapable dancers to attend the National Square Dance Convention. The only requirement is to be a Handicapable dancer in a Handicapable club.
- In addition, USDA donates money to support the Handicapable Square Dance Conventions held every other year. Unfortunately, the 2020 and 2022 Handicapable Conventions had to be cancelled, but the dancers are looking forward to their next opportunity to gather around this favorite activity! For information on the USDA is able to support Handicapable dancers as a result of donations received from individual dancers, clubs, and square dance organizations. USDA is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization, so donations are tax-deductible.
